It's Airshow weekend in Houston! Leading up to Wings Over Houston are two days of Warbird fun at Sugar Land airport. Join the Commemorative Air Force's B-17 Texas Raiders and her warbird friends as they arrive for the big airshow. Take a tour of the aircraft, and take a flight on a single-passenger trainer or the iconic B-17 bomber.

The Flying Fortress will be open to the public starting Thursday, October 15, and will be joined by an array of vintage WWII aircraft on Friday October 16. Flights start at $195 for trainer aircraft and $475 for the Flying Fortress.

For an exclusive experience without the airshow crowd come on Monday October 19 to Landmark Aviation at Ellington Field, 11811 North Brantly Avenue in Houston. It's your last chance to take a tour or flight on the B-17 Texas Raiders.
